WU-2 Pilot Safe In Arizona Crash

TUCSON, Ariz., March 22 (AP) — A high-flying WU-2 plane from nearby Davis-Monthan Air Force Base crashed today in the foothills of the Santa Rita mountains 16 miles south of Tucson.

The pilot ejected safely. He was identified as Capt. Hung Tifan, a Chinese Nationalist officer.

Cause of the crash has not been determined. It was the fifth WU-2 to crash since the 4080th Strategic Wing was transferred to Davis-Monthan in July 1963.
